

COMPANY ANNOUNCEMENT

28th August, 2017

MobyLife announces that Martin Nyberg, CFO will be leaving the company

Martin Nyberg, CFO, will be leaving MobyLife towards the end of the year to pursue new opportunities outside of MobyLife.

“Martin Nyberg joined MobyLife in June 2014, following the expansion of the group to Denmark, Sweden, Norway and Finland. Martin has made a strong contribution to our company as responsible for group financials and a range of improvement initiatives including the recent financial and legal restructuring, which is now completed, and has been a valued colleague and leader in our organization. I have enjoyed working with Martin and wish him all the best for the future.” says Jakob H. Kraglund.

MobyLife will now initiate a process to find his replacement.

Copenhagen, 28th August 2017

Jakob H. Kraglund
CEO

For further information on this announcement:

Jakob H. Kraglund, CEO, tel. +45 23923724, jakob.h.kraglund@mobyLife.dk